Commandment Given By God To Moses.

ORDERS AN ALTAR BUILT.

FOUND IN SAMARITAN PENTATEUCH.

RARE COPY OF PENTATEUCH.

Chicago, Oct. 31.—To a class of little children in the Sunday-school of the First Presbyterian church of Oak Park the Rev. William E. Barton Sunday for the first time made known the result of his long labors in the complete translation of the Samaritan Pentateuch, or five books of Moses, says the Tribune. In this manuscript, which is the Bible of the Samaritans, was discovered the eleventh commandment, in which God commands Moses to build an altar on Mount Gerizim.

During 2,000 years the original Pentateuch from which Dr. Barton's copy was made has been carefully guarded by the high priests of the Samaritans, and so jealous has been their care of the valuable manuscript that it has been exposed to public view but once in every year.

For hundreds of years the priests believed that it would be a profanation of the relic to allow even a copy of it to pass into the hands of those of a different faith, and in all the world, it is said, there are only twenty copies extant, five of which are owned in the United States.

Two copies are owned by Dr. Barton, the Lenox library of New York has one, the Drew theological Seminary another, and the fifth is the property of the Rev. Dr. Watson in New York. The oldest copy owned by Dr. Barton was obtained by him two years ago from a son of High Priest Jacob Aaron, at Nablus, Palestine, and was in actual use in the synagogue when he bought it.

Commandment Is Translated.

The eleventh commandment, which is found in the Samaritan Pentateuch and in no other, reads, according to the translation of Dr. Barton, as follows:

And it shall come to pass, when Jehovah thy God shall bring thee to the land of the Canaanites, whether thou goest to possess it, that thou shalt set thee up great stones, and plaster them with plaster. And thou shalt pass over the Jordan that ye shall set up these stones (which) I command you this day, in Mount Gerizim. And thou shalt build there an altar to Jehovah thy God, an altar of stones. Thou shalt not lift upon the iron. With perfect stones shalt thou build the altar of Jehovah thy God. And thou shalt sacrifice peace offerings and thou shalt eat there and rejoice before Jehovah thy God. This mountain is on the other side of Jordan, behind the way of the going down of the sun, in the land of the Canaanites, which dwelt in the Arabah, over against Gilgal, beside the Oak of Moreh, beside Shechem.

"In the time of Christ it was a disputed question as to whether Moses had been commanded to worship on Mount Gerizim, in Jerusalem," said Dr. Barton. "When Jesus talked with the Samaritan woman at the well, and she asked him whether men should worship on that mountain or in Jerusalem, she put a question that is still in dispute."

"Two years ago, when I was in Palestine, visiting the high priest of the Samaritans, Jacob Aaron, his son, called me aside one day and inquired whether I would like to have a copy of the original manuscript of the five books of Moses. The one which he offered me was on parchment, and was written by the high priest himself, and I purchased it, together with the metal case in which it was contained. I could not read it at the time, it being written in the ancient Samaritan language, and after I had brought it home I found it had inadvertently mixed up with some other books, so that it was a long time before I got started in my translation."

Characters Are Ancient Hebrew.

"The characters are those of the ancient Hebrew, similar to those appearing on the Moabite stones, and after a little practice the Jewish scholar finds but little difficulty in translating them. The eleventh commandment found immediately adjoining the ten commandments in the Samaritan Pentateuch, and the original, which was guarded night and day, and is shown only once a year, on the day of atonement, is said to be the oldest manuscript of any portion of the Bible in existence."

"The copy which I obtained from Jacob Aaron is 106 feet long, and is contained in columns sixteen inches long and five inches wide. These columns are gathered and extend from end of end of the roll to the other."

"Being desirous of obtaining, if possible, a copy on leather, I opened negotiations with Jacob Aaron by letter, but he wrote me that he had no longer have the sacrificial leather. He would use no other."

"About 42 years before the coming of Christ, the Jews, secured from the Samaritans and established their new religion at Shechem, where the body of Joseph is buried. These Jews took from the five books of Moses, and they acknowledge no other Bible, although they have a book of Joshua, of which I have a copy in Arabic, but they do not consider it a part of their holy writ."

"The Samaritan Pentateuch, therefore, is of great importance in proving the correctness of the Hebrew text, and it is remarkable that the Hebrew scribes who have been copying their own copies for 2,300 years, have retained a text so nearly like the original."

Samaritan Views Changing.

"For many centuries the Samaritans have looked upon the Christians as a profane people. A great change has come over them, however, in the last few years, and my correspondence with the High Priest Jacob Aaron is interesting. Through my efforts and those of E. K. Warren, of Three Oaks, Mich., he was induced to attend the Sunday-school convention recently held in Jerusalem, and delivered a short address, which was translated for his hearers by a converted Jew."

"Up to a few years ago no price that could be offered would induce the Samaritan priests to part with a copy of their Pentateuch, and it took three centuries for the libraries of Europe to collect a few copies. Americans have repeatedly have copies, Americans to obtain copies. Since Dr. Barton's visit to Palestine two years ago he has come into possession not only of two copies of the Pentateuch, but other Samaritan works besides, until he now owns what is said to be the best collection of Samaritan literature extant outside of Palestine."

SOCIETY BUYING NEW ESTATES.

(New York Telegram to the Pittsburgh Dispatch.)

While all the principal figures in Newport society are disposing of their real estate in that famous center, new movements are in progress to establish colonies on the Hudson within an hour's ride of the metropolis and along the north shore of Long Island. The Goulds, Mackays, Phinneys, Pratts and other wealthy families have purchased every foot of waterfront for miles along the shore, and it is doubtful if these great estates will ever find their way again into the market. Over $2,000,000 were the sales of the last six days, and the aggregate for the summer has exceeded $30,000,000. The corporation is now engaged laying flower beds, parking the entire tract, so that it will become a veritable living spot. Along the Hudson the Morgans, the Harrimans, the Havens, the Rockefellers and the Fishes have already secured large tracts with the intention of establishing estates on the English plan.

HALLOWEEN BRINGS TROUBLES TO CITIZENS AND POLICE.

Saloon Signs On Church Steps, Dogs Suspended From Fences, and Tricks Hemorrhoids and Serious Cause the Young Much Enjoyment.

Last night was Halloween, and a trying one for the police, for the small boys were out in numbers celebrating the occasion in the usual way. It was not only a trying night for the police, but for the citizens in every section of the city. In the residence sections the police were kept busy chasing busy crowds of boys, while many citizens fastened themselves by moving signs, boards and playing all kinds of pranks. The boys were out with the dusk, armed with hatchets, hammers, chisels and screwdrivers, and whenever they found an unwatched gate there was soon a vacancy.

At roll call last night the patrolmen in every police district were given orders to scatter suspicious crowds of boys and to prevent the usual demonstrations as much as possible. While they were receiving the order, however, bevels of youngsters were planning the night's work, and before the police were a their beats "things were doing." The telephones in all the police stations were kept busy, and when a complaint was registered, everything from a gate to two-horse wagon was reported missing. Complaints that front yard and campus ornaments had fallen into the hands of the boys were registered from several sections.

COMES TO INVESTIGATE.

WILLIAM FORBES BELIEVES MALCOLM NORTON IS ALIVE.

The haymarket square on East Jefferson street was the scene of a "game" early last night, and as a result a score of wagons were spirited away before 10 o'clock. The police caught a crowd of urchins dragging a heavy wagon along Hancock street near Walnut and by strategy captured the bunch. It was learned from them that all the wagons taken from the haymarket had been left at Hancock and Walnut streets. The police caught them when they were returning to let them go home if they would return all the wagons removed. This was readily agreed to by the boys, and the wagons were returned to their owners.

A crowd on Third avenue was caught by the police with three gates on a wheelbarrow. They were compelled to return the gates to their proper places which was done under the supervision of the policemen, after which they were told to go home. A delivery wagon was turned over by another crowd at Seventh and Jefferson streets, while two other delivery wagons were found at 9 o'clock on the west side of the street on Jefferson street.

PRINT GIRLS' PICTURES TO GET MEN TO TOWN.

(Norton, Kan., Telegram to the Topoka Capital.)

The news, the leading paper of this town, will shortly publish photographs of the attractive young women of the town in the hope of drawing young business men here. The news claims that a good looking girl will attract young men more than business chances; that the town has the chances as well as the women, but that the former are not so readily appreciated as the latter.

JUST ARRIVED FROM ECHO.

(St. Louis Post-Dispatch.)

Gay shout registered at the Kentucky Building last week, but Kentucky's voice had been heard in the greatest Exposition ever before his arrival.

By this signature you shall know the O'Sullivan Rubber Heel; you'll find it on each box. It is a guarantee that you are getting heels of brand new rubber as it comes from the banks of the Amazon.

At the present time crude rubber costs $1.15 per pound, but it is the only rubber giving resiliency, comfort, dependability and wear.

These are the features that have caused our rubber heel to be recognized by physicians, adopted by hospitals and used by hustlers. They are a relief to the world; are a panacea to women and the greatest boon ever offered to the public. Remove the shoe from the shoe, but like all other good things, have substitutes. Substituting means cheapening. All other makes claim to be as good as O'SULLIVAN'S, but where they demand the same price for substitutes, it is not a reason you should demand O'SULLIVAN'S—the only kind made of new rubber.

PAJAMAS ROUT 'NIGHTIES' FROM STRONGHOLD IN ARMY.

(Washington Telegram to the Chicago Tribune.)

The antiquated "nighties" as an adjunct to the American army, has been ordered to the rear, and soon will be superseded by pajamas, in which style of sleeping garment Quartermaster Gen. Humphrey was converted during his service in the Philippines. The pajamas will be of a dark gray color and made of a soft, comfortable material, and will be supplied as rapidly as the old-fashioned "nighties" were made. A great effort was made to substitute pajamas for "nighties" in the navy, but the heads of the department opposed the innovation.

UNDER WAY

Construction of Parkway In Portland.

EXTENDING TO WESTERN PARK

HOPE OF TAXPAYERS' LEAGUE REALIZED.

HOPE FOR ENTIRE SYSTEM.

All obstacles have been overcome and the corps of workmen are now engaged in the construction of the long desired parkway from Portland to Western Park. Work was commenced yesterday under the supervision of Cecil Parker, engineer of the Board of Park Commissioners. Ground for the new parkway was broken at Portieth and at High streets and will continue until the drive is completed, meeting weather conditions that will render work impossible.

The parkway, which is a part of a general system in contemplation that will connect Eastern Park with Western Park, will probably be completed in three months. It will be 120 feet wide, with an asphalt driveway in the center and electric railway rights on either side. It will be fringed with two rows of trees dividing the driveway from the railroads. The trees will be two rows of sycamores and two of oaks.

The route is along the second shelf above the Ohio river, and will afford a fascinating view of the river on the route. It is the plan of the Board of Park Commissioners to build the parkway from Portieth and High streets to Market under the present plans, while the general plan is to connect the work now being constructed to complete the parkway system, linking together with a broad, picturesque driveway the city's prettiest parks. When completed the parkway will be eleven miles long, and will skirt the city limits from Eastern Park to the river, terminating at Portieth and High streets in Portland.

League Work Undaunted.

The Portland Taxpayers' League, embracing all the progressive citizens of Portland, is being congratulated on the good work done by it. The idea of the parkway now being constructed was conceived by the league and was forced to a successful culmination through the unrelenting efforts of that organization, which from the start had the hearty co-operation of the Board of Park Commissioners. Notwithstanding the fact that several obstacles, extremely stubborn in their nature, were encountered in securing right of way concessions, the Taxpayers' League was undaunted, and by perseverance and judicious work secured all necessary concessions and is now rewarded by seeing the work under way. It is believed the construction of the boulevard along the western river shore will give the parkway system an impetus that will mean a rapid realization of the entire system of eleven miles. When this is done Louisville will have one of the most attractive and picturesque parkways and as attractive parks as any city in the Southwest.

EVIDENCE

Of Ed Hall In Cundiff Murder Case

PRONOUNCED TO BE PERJURED

CHARLES FRENCH GIVEN TEN YEARS IN PENITENTIARY.

JAMES RYAN FORFEITS BOND.

Edward Hall, against whom an indictment was brought for false swearing in the case of William T. Cundiff, charged with the murder of Tom Bishop, pleaded not guilty when arraigned yesterday in the Criminal Court. At first the defendant seemed to be willing to admit his guilt, but on account of the absence of his attorney the plea of not guilty was entered and his case passed until November 14. According to Joseph M. Huffaker, Commonwealth's Attorney, Cundiff's acquittal depended largely on the testimony furnished by Hall.

The killing of Bishop was the result of a crap game in the latter's house in the county. Cundiff claimed that Bishop grabbed him by the throat and was trying to cut him when his sister, Fanny Cundiff, drew a pistol and fired the fatal shot. It was established through other witnesses by the defense that there was a general fight in progress at the time of the shooting. Hall, however, swore that when passing Bishop's house and hearing loud talking he ran to the kitchen window and looked in. He said further he saw Bishop with his hand upon Cundiff's throat trying to cut him. It was then, he said, that Fanny Cundiff fired the shot. The Commonwealth claims to have witnesses who will swear that Hall at the time of the killing was on the farm of Robert Cox, five miles from the scene of the killing.

"Nigger" Ryan Forfeits Bond.
James Ryan, alias Nigger Ryan, whose trial on the charge of robbery was to have taken place in the Criminal Court yesterday afternoon, for the second time failed to appear in court and forfeited his bond of $500, which was furnished by George W. Beck. When it became evident that Ryan was not present J. M. Huffaker, Commonwealth's Attorney, asked for a bench warrant and forfeiture. He also moved that the new bond be fixed at $1,000, which was ordered. The case was passed until Ryan recovers from his sickness, which is believed to be in four or five days. When the case was first called Ryan, who was on a $500 bond, did not appear and forfeiture was declared. He was brought back from Pittsburgh by Detective Donahue.

French Gets Ten Years.
Charles French, colored, tried on the charge of manslaughter in the Criminal Court yesterday, was given ten years in the penitentiary. He slashed Ed Lloyd, a white man, on the neck, inflicting a wound which caused death several days later. The defendant, who claimed self-defense, was employed at the Galt House at the time. Accompanied by a woman, he was on his way to the Galt House, Sunday afternoon, May 8 last. When passing Lloyd and his companions it is alleged that either French or the woman stepped on the dead man's foot. A quarrel followed and several blows were passed between French and Lloyd, the latter's companion, who is still in the hospital. French then drew a knife and cut Lloyd.

Frederick Kuster's Will Rejected.
The will of Frederick Kuster, dated June 20, 1904, was rejected for improper execution. It provides that his estate should be divided between his two daughters, Elizabeth and Ella Kuster, and his granddaughter, Elizabeth Strohmeyer.

Mary Cope, by her will dated October 15, 1904, and probated yesterday, provides that her house and lot at 214 West Main street shall go to Mary Penders, who is required to pay her funeral expenses and $25 for masses. The testatrix also leaves a house and lot at 407 Third street to her daughter, Ellen Holland.

Report of Grand Jury.
The grand jury in its report yesterday morning returned twenty indictments. Nathan Lavine and B. Harris, charged with knowingly receiving stolen property, were returned in Jeffersonville in 1898.

Court Paragraphs.
—The German Insurance Bank sued T. P. Fitzgerald on a note for $200.
—The German Insurance Bank sued R. L. Peters and others on a note for $200.
—Katie Gould sued John S. Gould for divorce, alleging cruelty. They were married December 2, 1901.

Court of Appeals Decisions.

Bryant vs. Stephens, etc. Filed October 18, 1904. (Not to be reported.) Appeal from Whitley Circuit Court. Opinion of the court by Judge Settle, reversing. First—Landlord's Ejectment.—Who May Maintain Action Of.—Appellants instituted this action against appellee and numerous other parties seeking to recover from a survey of land, described by metes and bounds, courses and distances, averring that they held the title and were entitled to the possession, which is illegally held by appellee. Appellee moved the court to require appellants to elect which of defendants they would prosecute the action against, alleging a misjoinder of actions, which motion was sustained by the court. Held, That it is manifest the lower court erred in sustaining that motion, because it is well settled that an action of ejectment may be maintained by an owner against several persons illegally claiming and holding separate parcels of it. While defendants hold in separate parcels, they are all within the survey set out in the petition.

Second—Same.—But had there been a misjoinder of actions, the appellees who had filed answers without objection to the supposed misjoinder waived the right to require an election of appellants. Sections 85 and 86 Civil Code.
George F. Johnson, O. H. Waddle for appellants.
Gratz vs. Worden.—Filed October, 1904. (Not to be reported.) Appeal from Bullitt Circuit Court. Opinion of the court by Judge Nunn, affirming. First—Damages—Evidence.—In this action by appellee, who was a laborer of appellant at his distillery, for damages for injuries alleged to have been sustained by reason of an unsafe plank upon which he was required to stand in putting a plug in the top of a cask, the evidence of appellee that the support of the plank upon which he was required to stand was removed without his knowledge, and that the plank could have been made secure by driving nails in a post under the end of it, and that the nails were not driven and the plank was not secure, was competent.

Second—Conduct of Juror.—A reversal of the judgment rendered in this action is urged on the ground that one of the jurors after the trial was over told appellant that on the trial of the case and after appellee had testified the court took a recess, and in passing out of the courtroom and into the street he walked behind appellee and watched to see if he was crippled, or whether or not he was pretending, and he concluded that it was not a pretense. Held.—That this was a matter of little importance, as it was not shown that the juror communicated this to his fellow-jurors and besides the statements of counsel who communicated it to him was only hearsay.

Third—Same.—Affidavit and Motion for New Trial.—Appellant upon his motion for a new trial stated that he had ascertained after the trial was over and could prove by Dr. Eaves that he was called to see appellee a few days after he was hurt, and that he was not present at the trial, but that appellee had violated his instructions and was up when he dismissed him because of this and did not visit him again. That in his opinion had appellee followed his advice he would not have been in as bad condition as he was at the trial. This physician was not present during the trial, though both parties had him subpoenaed as a witness, but neither introduced him because he had not informed them what his testimony would be. Two physicians did testify on the trial as to the condition of appellee. It is not pretended that the condition of appellee at the trial was otherwise than as the physicians stated, the effect of the affidavit being that appellee would have been in better condition had he followed Dr. Eaves' advice.
Charles Carroll, O'Neal & O'Neal, Leanne Mix for appellant; John S. Kelly for appellee.

Radford vs. Radford.—Filed October 11, 1904. (Not to be reported.) Appeal from Christian Circuit Court. Opinion of the court by Judge Barker, affirming. First—Husband and Wife—Contracts Between.—Where a husband and wife entered into articles of separation to the effect that they should no longer be husband and wife and each renounced all right which might prevail against the other such renunciation further providing that no restriction should exist against either as to place of residence, after the separation, the husband, becoming suspicious of her chastity, employed detectives to follow her and bring to light misconduct upon her part should any exist, and being furnished by them with evidence which appeared to him conclusive of her unchastity, instituted suit for divorce, alleging that she was guilty of such lewd and lascivious conduct as to render her unchaste. Held, that if the testimony of the witnesses for the husband was true it established his contention, but the testimony of the wife was of such a character as to equal in importance the testimony of the husband and if true established her contention and conduct of the wife, the chancellor dismissed the petition, and this court cannot say that he erred in his finding.

Second—Officer in Service of the Government.—Where the residence of appellant was shown to have been in Christian county, that he owned property and paid taxes there and had never claimed a legal residence elsewhere, he was a resident of that county in the service of the government, obeying the orders of his superiors, going where directed, and being paid by the government. He was held to be a resident of that county and his legal residence must be held to be the legal residence of the government.

Beauty of Skin Part of Blood.
Ancient and Modern Ideas on these Interesting Subjects.

UP-TO-DATE METHODS
For Purifying and Beautifying the Skin, Scalp, Hair and Hands.

Socrates called beauty a short-lived tyranny, Plato a privilege of nature, Theophrastus a delightful prejudice, Theophrastus a silent cheat, Carnades a solitary kingdom, Homer a glorious gift of nature, Ovid a favor of the gods. Aristotle affirmed that beauty was better than all the letters of recommendation in the world, and yet none of these distinguished authorities has left as even a hint of how beauty is to be perpetuated, or the ravages of age and disease defied. Time soon blends the lily and the rose into the pallor of age, disease dots the fair face with cutaneous disfigurements and wrinkles, and the nose with unsightly fleshy growth, if not rust, corrupts the glory of eyes, teeth, and lips yet beautiful by defacing the complexion, and fills the sensitive soul with agony.

If such be the unhappy condition of one afflicted with slight skin blemishes, what must be the feelings of those in whom torturing humors have for years run riot, covering the skin with scales and sores and charging the blood with poisonous elements to become a part of the system until death? It is in the treatment of torturing, disgusting humors and affections of the skin, scalp and blood, with loss of hair, that the Cuticura remedies have achieved their greatest success. Originated in composition, scientifically compounded, absolutely pure, unchangeable in any climate, always ready, and agreeable to the most delicate and sensitive, they present to young and old the most successful curatives of modern times.

SCHEDULE

Showing Mr. Eaches' Liabilities to be $49,416.79.

ASSETS NOT QUITE AS MUCH.

THOUGH PLACED ACCORDING TO COUNTY ASSESSMENT.

REAL ESTATE PROMINENT.

The schedule of assets and liabilities of Ewing Eaches, the Main street stock broker who recently assigned, was filed yesterday in the County Clerk's office by his attorney, Burwell K. Marshall. The total assets are placed at $45,883.12. In the statement, though they would exceed that figure by $5,000 had the estimated value of Mr. Eaches' real estate not been taken from the County Assessor's books, which only show about eighty per cent. of the market price.

Liabilities Nearly $50,000.

The liabilities are given at $49,416.79. Thus, it is evident that the Eaches would be able to pay out dollar for dollar if all notes and accounts due him were paid. However, it is feared, will not prove the case. Of the assets Mr. Eaches' real estate in Louisville is placed at $15,427, the assessed value. He also has one-half interest in a farm in Clark county, Ind., the assessed value of which is $18,890, making Mr. Eaches' real estate $34,317. Other assets including notes and accounts collectable are given as $20,155.30. The bulk of this last item is the result of trading in stocks. Mr. Eaches furthermore has a summer cottage at Les Cheneaux, Mich., valued at about $200. A number of bonds, no value of which is given in the schedule, are listed. Upon these something may be secured by the assignee before final settlement.

Upon his real estate the list of liabilities shows that Mr. Eaches has mortgages amounting to $27,100. Of this total amount the Fidelity Trust Company holds a $7,000 mortgage upon his Indiana property. On his Louisville real estate Mr. Eaches has mortgages of $20,100. Other liabilities incurred by him are the results of trading and equal $22,316. Among the larger accounts due from stock transactions are the following: L. B. Welschman, Bradford, $4,883; J. C. Thompson, Chicago, $2,000; J. M. Chatterton, $1,000; F. B. Hemphill, $3,000; J. H. Dickerson, Burgin, $1,061.46.

Some of Accounts Owed.

Among the larger accounts and notes owed by Eaches are the following: S. J. Bear, Madison, $1,553.1; Whitehouse, $2,282; Wallace Weller, $1,386; C. H. Commerson company, St. Louis, $1,233; H. Monroe, $1,067; M. L. Satterwhite, $1,675.

BOB TAYLOR NOT WANTED AS LECTURER.

Young Women of Church Society Dislike Facts of Recent Divorce and Second Marriage.

Ex-Gov. Bob Taylor has been rejected as a lecturer by the Young Ladies' Society of the McFerran Memorial church largely on account of his late matrimonial maneuvers. Ex-Gov. Bob Taylor made a proposition to the church through his agents, and the pastor, the Rev. William W. Hamilton, turned the matter over to the Young Ladies' Society.

Ex-Gov. Taylor's offer to lecture for $250 or 70 per cent. of the gross receipts was thought too high by the young women, and during the discussion some one brought up the fact of his late divorce and remarriage. It was thought that ex-Gov. Taylor had displayed undue haste, so his proposition was declined. The young women of the society regard very seriously the divorce and remarriage, and refuse to say anything at all about it.

VALUED PIECE OF FURNITURE TO BE USED.

An interesting piece of furniture to be used in the French drawing-room scene of "The Daughter of the Regiment" is an Empire piano, originally owned by the late Mrs. Sallie Ward Downes. It was imported by her in 1850 from Vienna and was sold at private auction several years ago, when Llewellyn Smith was the purchaser.

It is now the property of the Louisville Society of the McFerran Memorial church and is being loaned to the Louisville Lyceum. It is a fine example of the piano used in "L'Aiglon" when presented by Maud Adams.
